HURRICANE.

The sick referred to last week are all better.

Our school district is made up so far as pupils are concerned.

We went on our sled to mill last week, also visited Jeff Love's family, of the Fords Ferry neighborhood. We also visited Mrs. Carl Flany and found her very low and fear she will not be with us many days.

We have had warning from our Tolu scribe, or Pharisee, to stay in our own boudry. We can't tell just where to stop, but would suggest the city limits for him. But we will be charitable, as we have a large neighborhood, and everybody stays at home but your scribe, and nearly every one of us keeps hotel, and Josh Hamilton has got lots of good timothy hay, who would get alarmed about new territory.

John Hamilton has a new girl at his house.

Maggie Weldon made a short visit to her earthly home last week.

Miss Addie Franks is visiting her brother and sister of this section.

Glendale school closed Friday with a fine interest, so we are informed.

Our preacher, Bro. Givens, has not yet come to his work. If we had material we would make us one.

Grandma Lindsey is quite poorly.

John Crighead, from Caldwell Springs neighborhood visited this section Sunday.

Our Sunday school was a little short Sunday, owing to the snow storm.

We heard of a man several days ago that had married seven times, four sisters in one family and three in the other. His name was Hughey; for further particulars come back at us.

Jim Foster has moved back to us.

Andrew Hughes discovered some fine mineral on his farm the other day. Some time ago your scribe was looking among the mountains and gullies and he discovered a hole in the side of the hill and went to explore it. He had scarcely begun when he discovered the Old Jim rock; the very stuff itself. He hastened over to the Old Jim and there found a match for it. He at once went to

Marion and divided it up among his mining friends and all of whom pronounced it fine. He then returned home and went to work in dead earnest to get out the precious metal, but it seemed that the vein had moved somewhat; but while busy at work his neighbor came up and said: "I caught a fine ground hog in that hole. I then understood why the rock was there. The old hog had it in his show window for a sample."

CAVE-IN-ROCK.

The river is a sight worth traveling miles to see. Ice, ice every where and nothing to flavor it with. The saloon stock is low; sugar and all other groceries are short, no boats for nearly two months, so much water and mud that we can't get anything hauled from the railroad, mails irregular and uncertain. Oh, how badly we need a railroad.

It is said blood will tell. Ernest Paris has joined the Baptist church. This is a striking example of atavism. Now if he should vote the Republican ticket his atavistic tendencies would be clearly proven. It is to be hoped, however, his case is not so serious as that.

Considerable sickness among the children in this community; mostly scarlet fever, diphtheria, whooping cough and pneumonia.

It is understood here that work has begun on the grade of the Northern division of the Harrisburg Southern railroad, which is to extend from Marion, Ill., via Harrisburg to the Ohio river at or near Elizabethtown, Ill.

I have failed to report for some time on account of the uncertainty of the mails.

SHERIDAN.

We are having lots of cold weather around our little mining town but it don't bluff out our miners a little bit.

J. R. Bagwell, the village blacksmith, has completed his new dwelling and has moved to Sheridan where he will practice his profession. He is a good blacksmith and will appreciate your patronage.

The musicale at Mr. and Mrs. Newt Stallions was numerous attended and unanimously enjoyed. Joe Wiggins private string band furnished fine music, the band being composed of Chas. Wiggins, Misses Hattie and Bettie Wiggins his sisters, and they all seem to be natural musicians.

J. Bartley Sullenger was in our town this week.

Morgan Henson is all smiles; he says it's an eleven and one fourth pounds.

There is considerable railroad talk in our city now. A. J. Babcock says there are no 47 ways about it, we are going to have the railroad. I think he has about decided on the survey as he sits in his store and surveys all the time. If everybody would work for the enterprise as he does we would certainly succeed.

Mr. Givens has discovered probably the richest vein in the county at his mines near the Pleasant Grove church, the ore being valued at $2.50 per pound; and not only that, a conglomerate of ores consisting of five or six different kinds, valued at 75 cents to 2.50 per lb. Mr. Givens, our hats are off to you.

Glendale school closed Friday, the 26th of this month, and all enjoyed the little programme of speeches, songs and recitations, and this leaves the miners alone, now, to mine and not go to school.

John Farmer has recently moved from our midst on Jennie Doss farm near Marion, where he aims to till the fertile soil the ensuing year. We are all heartily sorry to lose old Clippis for he is a jolly good fellow, even to Bob Gibbs who hasn't cared for any one since he started his tanyard late last spring.

WRITER OF WAR SONGS DEAD.

Mrs. Annie Chambers, Ketchum, author of the "Bonnie Blue Flag," one of the most inspiring songs of the Confederacy, as well as many other poems and prose writings, died recently in St. Vincent's hospital, after less than a week's illness, in her eightieth year. Her poem, "A Battle Call" was another favorite among the soldiers of the Confederacy; when Memphis was occupied by the Federal troops Mrs. Ketchum refused to take the "iron clad" oath of allegiance, and was banished from the city by order of the military authorities.

These war songs were, however, only a small part of Mrs. Ketchum's literary work. She also wrote "Nelly Bracken," a novel published in 1855; "Gypsy," a collection of letters of travel; "Lotus Flowers," a collection of poems, and a series of lectures for school text book use in science, literature and art.

Mrs. Ketchum came of a long line of Virginia and Kentucky ancestry. Her maternal grandfather was Judge Fielding Bradford who in connection with his brother John, founded in Lexington in 1787, the Kentucky Gazette, the first newspaper published west of the Alleghany mountains. Her father, Major Chambers, was one of the twenty in the "forlorn hope" at the battle of the River Raisin in Kentucky in 1813, and one of the six who survived the massacre which followed. He afterwards became prominent and in 1833 was made Receiver of Public Monies for the then territory of Arkansas by President Jackson. He removed with his family of six children to Little Rock, but died there the same year.

After his death she became Principal of the Memphis High School for Girls, and opened a Normal School in Georgetown, Ky. The death of her seventeen-year-old son from Asiatic cholera prostrated her and she spent much time in Europe.

Late in life she became a Roman Catholic, and joined the section of the Third Order of St. Dominic, as Sister Amabilia.

Mrs. Ketchum, since her return from Rome a year ago, had made her home at the Windemere, at Fifty-seventh street and Ninth Avenue. Her nearest surviving relatives are her daughter, Mrs. A. W. Hart, and three grandchildren of Louisville, Ky., and her only nephew, Dr. R. Stuart Chambers, of the Church of the Blessed Sacrament, New York.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets.

Mr. A. R. Kane, a prominent druggist of Baxter Springs, Kansas, says: "Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are, in my judgment, the most superior preparation of anything in use today for constipation. They are sure in action and with no tendency to nauseate or gripe." For sale by Woods & Orme.

Itch—Ringworm.

E. T. Lucas, Wingo, Ky., writes, April 25th, 1902: "For 10 to 12 years I had been afflicted with a malady known as the 'itch.' The itching was most unbearable; I had tried for years to find relief, having tried all remedies I could hear of, besides a number of doctors. I wish to state that one single application of Ballard's Snow Liniment cured me completely and permanently. Since then I have used the Liniment on two separate occasions for ringworm and it cured me completely. 25c, 50c and $1.00 bottle. Sold by Woods & Orme.
